Note: "Matt Haze28" (Skype: live:generalhaze28) is a separate social contact (movie plans); no owl-related content found in those exchanges.

5. Key Evidence

5.1 Critical SMS — Delivery Coordination (HIGHEST RELEVANCE)

Field	Value
Timestamp (UTC)	2017-02-01 05:41:15
From	+1 (304) 518-4333
To	Sarah McAvoy
Message	"Sarah, the delivery is today 7 tonight the confirmation will come later through pidgin"

Field	Value
Timestamp (UTC)	2017-02-01 05:41:45
From	Sarah McAvoy
To	+1 (304) 518-4333
Message	"Thank you!"

Analysis: The co-conspirator notified Sarah of a same-day delivery ("7 tonight") and indicated that a confirmation would be sent via Pidgin — a desktop XMPP/IM client. The use of Pidgin for confirmation suggests the conspirators deliberately moved to a PC-based platform for the final transaction details, likely to avoid mobile forensics. Sarah's "Thank you!" reply confirms receipt and acceptance.

5.2 Browser History — Owl Purchasing Research

All timestamps UTC. Extracted from Chrome History database.

Analysis: Sarah systematically researched owl purchasing sites on 2017-01-25 — the same day she received her Facebook confirmation code, suggesting this was very early in the operation. She browsed UK-based bird trading sites (BirdTrader) and exotic animal sale sites. The search term "baby owls for sale" and legality research ("Are owls legal to keep as pets?") is consistent with the early planning stage of an illegal wildlife purchase.

Session 2: 2017-01-31 (Bird Supply Procurement)

Timestamp (UTC)	URL	Title
03:06:18	amazon.com/...bird+feeder	Amazon.com: bird feeder
03:06:37	amazon.com/.../B0002AQMDM/...bird+bedding	Kaytee Kay Kob Bedding for Birds, 8-Pound
03:06:43	amazon.com/.../B00BUFRZU2/...bird+bedding	Kaytee Walnut Bedding and Litter Pad, 7-Pound
03:09:47	bing.com/search?q=owls	owls — Bing
03:11:29	bing.com/...q=owls+Snowy	Bing image search: owls Snowy

Analysis: Sarah searched Amazon for bird feeder and bird bedding products — consistent with preparing to receive and house a live bird. This activity occurred on the same evening she sent the Skype message "Hey Matt thanks for the hook up" (2017-01-31 00:15 UTC), suggesting the "hook up" referred to the owl arrangement. The subsequent Bing snowy owl image searches corroborate the specific species of interest.

Session 3: 2017-02-03 (Post-Delivery Research)

Timestamp (UTC)	URL	Title
22:19:05	google.com/...tbm=isch&q=owls	owls — Google Image Search

Timestamp (UTC)	URL	Title
22:20:17	google.com/...q=snowy+owl	snowy owl — Google Image Search
22:20:49–53	google.com/...snowy+owl (multiple image views)	Snowy owl image browsing

Analysis: Continued owl image browsing two days after the delivery. This post-delivery interest is consistent with someone who had recently acquired an owl and was continuing to research the species.

5.3 Downloaded Files

All files downloaded 2017-02-03 (corroborated by Chrome downloads database and filesystem timestamps).

Filename	Size	Source	Relevance
220px-Snowy_Owl_Barrow_Alaska.jpg	15,191 bytes	Referrer: google.com (image search)	Snowy Owl — species of interest
220px-Snowy_Owl_-_Schnee-Eule.jpg	22,062 bytes	Referrer: google.com (image search)	Snowy Owl (German: “Snow Owl”)
SeaTurtle-1600x600px.jpg	56,867 bytes	Referrer: google.com (image search)	Sea turtle image
1a579fb3cc1e12e4c7f7ea818dcd3aac.jpg	81,982 bytes	Referrer: google.com (image search)	Unknown subject (1134×756 px JPEG)
download.jpg	10,704 bytes	Chrome download	Unknown subject

Supporting files location: exports/media/downloads/

Analysis: Two distinct snowy owl images were downloaded, directly corroborating the Bing/Google “Snowy Owl” image search activity. The sea turtle images suggest possible interest in a second CITES-protected species, though no direct trade evidence was found for turtles within this dataset.

5.4 Skype Messages — “Hook Up” Reference

Extracted from Skype main.db / Messages table.

Timestamp (UTC)	Author	Message
2017-01-31 00:15:25	live:mcavoys87 (Sarah)	“Hey Matt thanks for the hook up”
2017-01-31 00:16:07	live:generalhaze28 (Matt)	“No prob have you seen the new Rings movie”

Analysis: Sarah thanked “Matt Haze28” for a “hook up” — and the conversation immediately pivoted to innocuous movie discussion. The phrase “hook up” in context (immediately following the owl purchasing research phase, and days before the delivery SMS) is consistent with a referral or introduction to the owl supplier. Matt’s non-responsive pivot to movies may indicate awareness of communications security.

5.5 Social Media Account Creation Timeline

Corroborated by SMS verification codes received.

Date (UTC)	Event
2017-01-20	AT&T GoPhone activated (new SIM/device)
2017-01-25	Facebook account confirmed (code from 32665)
2017-01-26	Twitter account activated (code from 40404); Microsoft account code received
2017-01-27	Facebook friends accepted: Monica Neff, Terry Bunch, Isaiah Dashner
2017-01-31	Skype conversation with live:generalhaze28
2017-02-01	Delivery SMS received from +1(304)518-4333
2017-02-03	Snowy owl image searches and downloads

Analysis: The rapid creation of multiple social accounts immediately after device activation (all within 6 days of SIM activation) is consistent with establishing a new persona/identity for operational purposes. The GoPhone prepaid SIM provides anonymity; the TextNow VOIP number (901-444-9108) provides an additional layer of communication obfuscation.

6. Installed Applications of Forensic Significance

Package	Application	Forensic Significance
com.enflick.android.TextNow	TextNow	VOIP/SMS anonymization layer (# 901-444-9108)
com.skype.raider	Skype	Chat with contact who “hooked up” owl purchase

Package	Application	Forensic Significance
com.facebook.katana	Facebook	Social network — friends potentially aware of activity
com.snapchat.android	Snapchat	Ephemeral messaging; content not retained in database
com.google.android.talk	Google Hangouts	SMS bridge; delivery SMS also captured here
com.twitter.android	Twitter	Account mcavoys87 activated 2017-01-26
com.zhiliaoapp.musically	TikTok/Musical.ly	Account: SarahMcavoy

Note on Snapchat: The Snapchat database (tcspahn.db) contained no retained chat messages, consistent with Snapchat's ephemeral design. Snaps and chats are deleted after viewing. Metadata tables (Friends, ReceivedSnaps, SentSnaps) were empty.

Note on Pidgin: No Pidgin application was found installed on the Android device. Pidgin is a Windows/Linux desktop IM client — the co-conspirator's reference to "pidgin" in the SMS indicates that owl trade confirmation communications were conducted from a separate desktop/laptop system not present in this evidence set.

9. Findings and Conclusions

Primary Finding: Evidence of Illegal Wildlife Trade Coordination

The forensic examination of the LGE Nexus 5 full device image reveals substantial digital evidence that Sarah McAvoy

(mcavoy87@gmail.com) was actively engaged in planning and executing the illegal acquisition of at least one owl, specifically a Snowy Owl (Bubo scandiacus).

The evidence establishes the following chain of events:

1. Research Phase (2017-01-25): Sarah conducted systematic browser research into purchasing owls illegally, visiting exotic animal sale sites and researching the legality of owl ownership — indicating awareness that the activity was potentially illegal.
2. Arrangement Phase (Late January 2017): Sarah thanked a Skype contact (“Matt Haze28”) for a “hook up,” indicating a referral or introduction to a supplier. Amazon purchases of bird bedding and feeding supplies confirm preparation to receive a live bird.
3. Delivery Phase (2017-02-01): A co-conspirator (phone: +1(304)518-4333) sent an SMS confirming a same-day delivery and indicating that final confirmation would come via Pidgin (a desktop IM client) — deliberately moving the transaction details off the mobile device. Sarah’s acknowledgment confirms her participation.
4. Post-Delivery Phase (2017-02-03): Continued Snowy Owl image searches and two Snowy Owl image downloads corroborate that a transaction involving snowy owls had occurred.

Secondary Finding: Additional Species of Interest

Browser history on 2017-02-03 included searches for “sea turtles baby” and the download of SeaTurtle-1600x600px.jpg. This may indicate interest in additional protected species, though no direct trade evidence was found for sea turtles in this dataset.

Gaps and Recommended Follow-Up

Gap	Recommendation
Pidgin communications not on device	Investigate suspect’s desktop/laptop for Pidgin logs (typically stored at ~/.purple/logs/ on Linux or %APPDATA%\Roaming\.purple\logs\ on Windows)
Identity of +1(304)518-4333 not determined	Law enforcement subpoena to carrier for subscriber information
Snapchat content ephemeral — not retained	Subpoena Snapchat for server-side records if within retention window
Gmail mailstore database was empty	Server-side Gmail preservation/subpoena recommended
Facebook messages not recovered from device	Facebook account preservation/subpoena for messages with Monica Neff, Terry Bunch, Isaiah Dashner
“Matt Haze28” (live:generalhaze28) identity	Further investigation of Skype account and whether referral constitutes conspiracy
