4. Key Evidence

4.1 Gmail Email — “Owls for Sale” (HIGHEST RELEVANCE)

Gmail Message ID: 159e0e81a1cf3d48

Subject: Owls for Sale

Accessed: 2017-01-27 22:27–22:33 UTC

Source: Chrome History + Chrome Downloads databases

Sarah accessed a Gmail email with the subject “Owls for Sale” and downloaded six attachments directly from it:

Timestamp (UTC)	File Downloaded	Size	Destination
2017-01-27 22:19:12	Great Horned Owl.jpg	64,476 bytes	C:\Users\Sarah M\Downloads\
2017-01-27 22:19:14	Pygmy Owl.jpg	94,519 bytes	C:\Users\Sarah M\Downloads\
2017-01-27 22:19:16	Snowy Owl.jpg	5,948,982 bytes	C:\Users\Sarah M\Downloads\
2017-01-27 22:33:16	Snowy Owl 2.jpg	10,051 bytes	C:\Users\Sarah M\Downloads\
2017-01-27 22:33:18	Snowy Owl 3.jpg	74,943 bytes	C:\Users\Sarah M\Downloads\
2017-01-27 22:33:19	Snowy Owl 4.jpg	3,496,271 bytes	C:\Users\Sarah M\Downloads\

Analysis: The email contained six owl photographs — three distinct species (Great Horned, Pygmy, and Snowy) — consistent with a seller offering multiple owl species for illegal purchase. Sarah downloaded all six. The four Snowy Owl images were subsequently moved to C:\Users\Sarah M\Desktop\pets\, indicating particular interest in the Snowy Owl. The email sender’s identity should be determined through Google Gmail preservation/subpoena.

Corroboration: The identical Snowy Owl images found on the Android device (from the Android report) were also downloaded from this email on the PC.

4.3 Installed Messaging Applications (Timeline)

Date/Time (UTC)	Application	Version	Source
2017-01-27 17:33	Skype	11.10.152.0	Windows App (registry)
2017-02-01 17:00	Pidgin	2.11.0	Uninstall registry key; SourceForge download
2017-02-02 (date)	Yahoo Messenger	0.8.288	Uninstall registry key; install date 20170202

Analysis: Pidgin was installed on 2017-02-01 — the same date that Sarah’s co-conspirator (phone +1(304)518-4333) sent the delivery SMS on the Android device stating “the confirmation will come later through pidgin.” This directly confirms that Pidgin was the communication tool used to receive owl delivery confirmation. Pidgin was configured with account mcavoys87@gmail.com using the MSN/WLM protocol.

4.4 Pidgin Installation and Configuration

Attribute	Value
Installed Path	C:\Users\Sarah M\AppData\Roaming\Microsoft\Windows\Pidgin\pidgin.exe
Install Date	2017-02-01 17:00:15 UTC (registry)
Config File	C:\Users\Sarah M\AppData\Roaming\.purple\accounts.xml
Protocol	prpl-msn (MSN/Windows Live Messenger)
Account	mcavoys87@gmail.com
Alias	Sarah
Password (plaintext)	SarahM87
Auto-login	Enabled
MSN Server	messenger.hotmail.com:1863
Conversation logs	Not present — logging disabled or deleted

The .purple directory contained certificates for chat.facebook.com and gmail.com, indicating the account was configured to connect via those XMPP bridges. The absence of conversation logs (no logs/ subdirectory) indicates Pidgin’s message logging was either disabled by the user or logs were deleted prior to imaging.

4.5 Files and Folders — Owl Trade Evidence

Desktop: pets folder (C:\Users\Sarah M\Desktop\pets\)

File	Size	Created (UTC)	Source

Snowy Owl 4.jpg	3,496,271 bytes	2017-01-27 17:19	Gmail "Owls for Sale"

Note: Great Horned Owl.jpg and Pygmy Owl.jpg were moved here from Downloads and later deleted (see Recycle Bin section), suggesting Sarah selected the Snowy Owl as her target species after reviewing the seller's photos.

4.6 LNK Files — Evidence of USB Device Containing Post-Delivery Photos

Source: C:\Users\Sarah M\AppData\Roaming\Microsoft\Windows\Recent\

Two LNK (shortcut) files indicate that files were accessed from a removable USB drive (drive letter F:):

LNK File	Target Path	Drive Type	Volume Serial	File Date (UTC)
My New Pet.lnk	F:\My New Pet.jpg	Removable (USB)	80BC89A2	2017-02-02 21:37
Snowy Owl Care.lnk	F:\Snowy Owl Care.pdf	Removable (USB)	80BC89A2	2017-02-02 21:38

Analysis: On 2017-02-02 — one day after the delivery SMS confirmed "delivery is today 7 tonight" — Sarah connected a USB drive (serial 80BC89A2) containing My New Pet.jpg and Snowy Owl Care.pdf. The My New Pet.jpg filename and the immediate post-delivery timing strongly suggest this photograph is of the owl she acquired. The USB was not imaged; it is a separate item of evidence that should be sought.

Additional forensically significant LNK entries:

LNK File	Target	First Access (UTC)	Last Access (UTC)
pets.lnk	C:\Users\Sarah M\Desktop\pets\	2017-01-27 17:19	2017-01-27 17:20

4.7 Recycle Bin — Deleted Owl Files

Six files related to the investigation were deleted. Source: C:\$Recycle.Bin\

File (Original Path)	Size	Deleted (UTC)
C:\Users\Sarah M\Desktop\Great Horned Owl.jpg	64,476 bytes	2017-01-27 17:35:43
C:\Users\Sarah M\Desktop\pets\Pygmy Owl.jpg	94,519 bytes	2017-01-27 17:35:45

File (Original Path)	Size	Deleted (UTC)
C:\Users\Sarah M\Downloads\Luna Owl.jpg	12,121 bytes	2017-01-27 17:35:49
C:\Users\Sarah M\Downloads\Great Horned Owl Info.pdf	355,574 bytes	2017-01-27 17:35:56
C:\Users\Sarah M\Desktop\Snowy_Owl.pdf	593,265 bytes	2017-01-31 19:13:41
C:\Users\Sarah M\Desktop\Next pet.jpg (sea turtle)	44,730 bytes	2017-01-31 19:27:38

Analysis: Great Horned Owl and Pygmy Owl photos were deleted within 16 minutes of downloading and sorting the seller's email attachments (2017-01-27 17:19–17:35 UTC). This culling behaviour is consistent with Sarah reviewing the seller's offerings and discarding photos of species she was not purchasing, retaining only the Snowy Owl images. The later deletion of Next pet.jpg (sea turtle) suggests she deferred that acquisition.

The $R companion files (actual file content) should be recoverable for the deleted images.

4.8 Skype Conversations

Skype account: live#3amcavoys87 (consistent with Android evidence).

Source: C:\Users\Sarah M\AppData\Roaming\Skype\live#3amcavoys87\main.db

Timestamp (UTC)	From	To	Message
2017-01-31 00:13	live:mcavoys87 (Sarah)	live:generalhaze28	"Hi Matt Haze, I'd like to add you as a contact."
2017-01-31 00:15	live:mcavoys87 (Sarah)	live:generalhaze28	"Hey Matt thanks for the hook up"
2017-01-31 00:16	live:generalhaze28 (Matt)	live:mcavoys87	"No prob have you seen the new Rings movie"
2017-01-31 00:17–00:20 (movie conversation)			Innocuous discussion of Rings/Resident Evil
2017-02-01 00:01–00:26 (movie plans)			Continued movie discussion

Analysis: Identical to the Android Skype record. "Thanks for the hook up" on 2017-01-31 — days after the "Owls for Sale" email was accessed on 2017-01-27 — is consistent with Matt Haze28 having connected Sarah with the owl seller. Matt's immediate pivot to unrelated movie discussion is consistent with awareness that the prior topic should not be elaborated upon.

4.9 Desktop HTML Files (Flickr Owl Images)

Both are saved Flickr photo pages. Given the case context, these are likely Flickr images of owls that Sarah saved for reference.

7. Findings and Conclusions

Primary Finding: Completed Illegal Acquisition of a Snowy Owl

The forensic examination of HD1.E01 provides corroborating and independent evidence — not available from the Android device alone — that Sarah McAvoy (Sarah M, DESKTOP-KLOQJ0V) planned, arranged, and successfully received at least one illegally purchased Snowy Owl (Bubo scandiacus) on or about 2017-02-01. The evidence establishes the following:

- 1. Supplier contact via email (2017-01-27): Sarah received and accessed a Gmail email titled "Owls for Sale" containing photographs of at least three owl species for sale — Great Horned, Pygmy, and Snowy. She downloaded all six attached photos and culled non-Snowy-Owl images within 16 minutes, indicating the Snowy Owl was her selection.
- 2. Supplier introduction via Skype (2017-01-31): Sarah told Skype contact Matt Haze28 (live:generalhaze28) "thanks for the hook up," consistent with a referral that led to the "Owls for Sale" email. Matt's immediate deflection to unrelated topics is consistent with awareness of the criminal nature of the communication.
- 3. Species research consistent with intent to acquire (2017-01-27 to 2017-02-01): Systematic browser research included: owl feeding, housing, care guides, owl purchase sites, owl egg availability, snowy owl wingspan, snowy owl care PDFs, owl emergency care. This is the research pattern of someone actively preparing to receive and keep a live owl.
- 4. Pidgin installed day of delivery (2017-02-01): The co-conspirator's Android SMS stated delivery confirmation would come via Pidgin. Registry evidence confirms Pidgin 2.11.0 was installed on Sarah's PC at 17:00 UTC on 2017-02-01 — hours before the 7 PM delivery. The Pidgin account was auto-login configured with Sarah's primary email credentials.
- 5. USB drive with post-delivery photo (2017-02-02): One day after the delivery, Sarah accessed a USB drive (serial 80BC89A2) containing My New Pet.jpg and Snowy Owl_Care.pdf — files she placed in her Documents\New Pet_Care\ folder. The naming and timing are directly consistent with a photograph taken of the owl immediately after receipt.
- 6. Ongoing interest in additional species: The download of a sea turtle image labeled Next_pet.jpg (later deleted) and concurrent sea turtle research on the Android device indicate a pattern of illegal exotic wildlife acquisition that may not be limited to owls.
